MESSAGE FROM OUR VESTRY

On behalf of your Vestry I am pleased to announce the formation of St. Monica's search committee. This is the next step in our journey towards finding God's choice as our next Rector.

Our transitional documents, the parish profile and ministry portfolio, were posted on the diocesan and St. Monica's websites the week before Christmas and will remain at both through January for viewing by any interested candidates.

I wish to thank the following for agreeing to accept positions on our search committee:

Suzanne Bodley	Pat Kearns	Jill Ducatman	Tom Cote
Ray Lapierre	Betty Gamel	Heidi Varsames	Carol Hedman	Beth Moss

Next week the search committee and Vestry will meet with Canon Richard Norman, Canon to the ordinary, to begin the next steps in diocesan search process.

Please keep our Vestry and search committee in your prayers as our discernment for whom God is selected as our next Rector goes forward.

For the Vestry,
Matt Devlin, Senior Warden

SUBMIT YOUR MESSAGE FOR THE ANNOUNCEMENTS

To help everyone of St Monica's to feel as a part of the parish, we have now created a new way to send in your bulletin announcements!!

- Would you like to suggest a topic, or an article to add to our weekly announcements?
- Do you know of a local activity, or charity going on that you think your fellow church members would enjoy?
- Are you part of a committee & in need for volunteers & would like to request more help?
- Would you like to share an activity you have planned?
- Do you want to mention a good deed that someone did & want to bring recognition to it?

Well, here is your chance!! Feel free to give us your input! What kind of exciting new things will we see in our bulletin! Everyone is encouraged to participate to include our youth!! Our bulletin is for everyone, by everyone!!

BOOKMARK: <http://www.stmonicasnaples.org/bulletin-submission>

Your message must be submitted no later than 12noon on Wednesdays (before that Sunday). If your request is sent after 12noon on Wednesday it will be in the following bulletin.
